Brother Adam J. Richmond Scholarship

Adam Richmond was a Brother of Jordan Lodge A.F. & A.M. Unfortunately, Adam lost his life battling cancer. In honor of Adam, Jordan Lodge created this scholarship in his name.

The purpose of this scholarship is to provide financial aid students who embody the characteristics Adam held:

To be considered for this scholarship, the applicant must complete all applicable sections and submit the completed application by April 1st of the year. See mailing information below.

Application requirements include:

- A completed application
- An essay (no more than 300 words) explaining why you are enrolled in a college program, what you hope to obtain by receiving your degree, and the positive impact on your life.
- A transcript with your name and grades consistent with the year and semester that you are currently in (i.e. a junior should submit a transcript showing grades from freshman year to junior year fall semester, inclusive). If there is an issue obtaining this information, please provide the scholarship committee with an explanation of such an issue.
- Two letters of recommendation (academic and character references preferred)

Applicants can apply a set number of times to coincide with their chosen course of study. Additionally, these funds can only be dispersed to students of an undergraduate degree.

- If enrolled in a two-year course of study, this application may be submitted up to two times (one time per calendar year)
- If enrolled in a four-year course of study, this application may be submitted up to four times (one time per calendar year)

If you have any questions, please use the contact information found at the bottom of this cover letter. We look forward to considering your application for the Brother Adam J. Richmond Scholarship.
